Description & house plan

Villa Ana is located at the beach of the village Slatine on the isle of Ciovo. A bridge joins the isle with the city Trogir.

There are 4 double rooms and 8 apartments sleeping 2, two apartments can be used as guest room as well. Located at the beach (sandy beach with fine shingles). Very suited for couples, friends and families with 1 child. Each apartment has 2 sun beds and a sun shade at disposal.

Enjoy the historical treasures of Split, Salona and Trogir with 3 places of interest belonging to UNESCO's world heritage. You can also go shopping or make an educational trip to Trogir or Split or visit the isles. Vila Ana is an excellent accommodation for the recreational and active holiday maker. The Split-Trogir airport is nearby. The landlord, Herrn Ivan Ladisic, has mountain bikes of all sizes for rent (on a daily basis). Or you can follow a water skiing course.

Plenty of possibilities here, away from the mass tourism of the city and the over-crowded beaches.

Surroundings & activities

The isle of Ciovo is excellent for joggers, hikers and other active holiday makers and many guests return to this place.

Due to the mild temperatures and the peace and quiet, this region is very popular in spring and autumn, as well among the young ones without compulsory school attendance as the seniors. Fly rates to Split are also beneficial then.

Trogir is nearby: you can go shopping endlessly, enjoy the magnificent Mediterranean display of flowers or have a drink or snack at the numerous romantic bars and restaurants.

Cultural trips to the cities Trogir, Split, Sibenik, Zadar and Solin with a variety of cultural monuments belonging to UNESCO's world heritage make your holiday very interesting and unique.
