Description & house plan

Beautiful stone-built traditional villa with stunning views across the endless wheat fields. The strikingly attractive complexes comprise four to five meticulously restored traditional houses, furnished with comfort in mind, and decorated with charming Cypriot antiques & artefacts. All have either a balcony or a patio where you can relax in the sun, when you're not lying in a sun beds around the swimming pool.

Surroundings & activities

If you value ultimate tranquillity in proximity to a cosmopolitan centre, this modest village about 5 minutes' drive from Governor's Beach is only a short drive from the city of Limassol. Here CYPRUS VILLAGES offers you stone-built studios, 1 and 2-bedroom apartments with stunning views across the endless wheat fields. For a refreshing swim, the pool is within easy walking distance.

Explore the remote corners of our island and discover its hidden beauty through activities that bring you face to face with the heart and soul of Cyprus. Whether on horseback or on a bike, whether you prefer a leisurely walk, a brisk hike or a morning jog, the choice is yours, including a series of activities that are designed to lead you to the core of rural life in Cyprus.

- Riding at our Drapia horse farm - Cycling on professional bikes - Hiking and jogging on specially marked nature trails
- Fishing with a local fisherman - Making halloumi cheese and olive oil - Picking oranges and olives - Hosting Incentive-groups like painter, photographer etc.

Halloumi cheese

Our guests have the opportunity to visit goat farms and watch the villagers prepare the island's traditional 'halloumi' cheese, which is made from goat's milk. The traditional Cypriot breakfast is known to include fresh halloumi, olives, tomatoes, cucumber and homemade bread.
