Description & house plan

Our wooden bungalows are located on a charming family campground.

Living room with sitting area, double bed, dining area, American kitchen, 2 bedrooms each with 2 (bunk)beds, shower and toilet.

The bungalows are fully furnished and sleep 5 to 6 people. All with fridge, microwave, coffee maker and cable television with satellite.

The beds have duvets, pillows and bed linen. Towels, bath towels and tea cloths need to be brought along. Sunshade and garden furniture are at your disposal.

Surroundings & activities

Borsodbota is a small and quiet village in Northern Hungary, at about 40 km north from Eger and 12km from the Slovakian border. It is located in the province Borsod-Abauj-Zemplén.

Campground Amedi is a charming family campground with 40 spacious camping sites (for caravans and campers) and a hiking site for 15 tents, modern sanitary facilities with continuous warm water and kitchen to cook and wash.

With view of the surrounding hills this is an excellent place to get away from the daily stress. The campground is set in a hilly environment, where you can enjoy the marvelous nature at the Northern side of the Bükk Nemzeti Park and make walking trips for hours without being disturbed.

You can participate in outdoor activities (organized at request) or do some sport at your own initiative.

We offer you: a marvelous environment, nature reserve, quiet family campground, modern sanitary, use of washing machine and tumble dryer, weekly BBQ or goulash party, Dutch evening with chips, etc. Campfire site, small swimming pool.

For the amateurs: horse riding, walking trips, mountain bike rental, archery, fishing.

Castles, cities, dripstone caves and thermal baths within reach (by car).
