Surroundings & activities

The main places of interest in Rokytnice are St. Michaels Church and the beautiful town hall. Both Dolní (lower square) and Horní (upper square) are very lively because of all the shops, restaurants and other facilities. Near Rokytnice there is the old mountain house of Dvůrky and the Hučava River, which falls 50 meters in a long drop. There is a dense network of walkways that go by almost all of the holiday areas. Across the summits of the Giant Mountain range there is a 40km long tourist road called the "Královská magistrál" where you will see beautiful taverns built of wood and painted in bright colors. Some are enriched with nice carvings. The museum of Paseky (11km) is dedicated to wooden musical instruments and the Giant Mountain range. In Vysoké nad Jizerou (11km) there is a museum dedicated to the first ski club of Middle Europe. The holiday resort of Harrachov (16km) has a glass museum, a historic cable car, numerous sports facilities and the nearby Mumlavský vodopád falls. You can drive to Spindlerův mlýn (40km) along the Labe (Elbe) River. There you'll find a special attraction: a 4km-long summer toboggan slide. In Vrchlabí (26km) you will find beautiful traditional wooden houses and a castle built in baroque style. There is also a zoo. The city of Liberec (45km) has some beautiful 17th century wooden houses, the St Antonius Church and a beautiful town hall modeled after Vienna's town hall. 300m from the house you will find a variety of restaurants where you can end the day with a good and fair-priced meal.
