Description & house plan

Nijstad is situated on a small street just outside the center of the village of Dwingeloo. Here you will find this farm suitable for 4 persons. The accommodation is near the village green. Nijstad has retained its rural character thanks to its lush vegetation. De Nijstad was founded before 1700, and the original atmosphere can still be felt today with thatched roofs and wooden houses.

This apartment is suitable for a maximum of 4 persons. The interior furnishings are simple but authentic, which matches the atmosphere very well. The kitchen and dining area are located on the ground floor. The kitchen is equipped with a gas stove (2 burners), a microwave and a refrigerator. The living room borders the kitchen and has a table with chairs and a TV. Next to the living room you will find two bedrooms. One is furnished with a double bed while the other has two single beds. The bathroom is equipped with a shower, sink and toilet. Moreover, you have a private furnished terrace at your disposal. There is sufficient parking for your car and you can rent a gas barbecue if you wish.

Surroundings & activities

Dwingeloo is a nice hospitable village with a very special and beautiful village green. From the shady village center you can enjoy views of several splendid farms and old renovated houses. The 'Siepel', the unique tower of a Dutch Protestant church, is characteristic of Dwingeloo and is visible from afar. You will also find 'Planetron' in Dwingeloo. This is a very special facility with a projection screen of 350 m². It is well worth a visit. The surroundings here are ideal for exploration. There are fantastic opportunities for hiking, cycling and horseback riding. Enjoy the varied nature of the 'Dwingelderveld', a national park characterized by woods, heaths and fens. This is Europe's largest wetland area and contains plenty of unusual plants and animals. 'Dwingelderveld' is freely accessible and even has paths for disabled persons as well as rental of bikes, horses and covered wagons so you can make nice trips. And you cannot help but see Dwingeloo's world famous radio telescope on one of your trips.
